TWENTY-SECOND YEAR-NUMBER 11.

DRUNKEN

ARRESTING OMAHA LYNCHERS

dulge in a Free Fight.

The Prosecuting Attorney is Determined to Vindicate the Laws-All Are Charged With Murder in the First Degree.

to The Heraid [—County Attorney Mahoney has announced that he proposes to make the most searching investigation into Friday night's lynching and will prosecute to the full extent of his ability those who participated in it. He says he will not sparse any expense to secure evidence, and will follow the case through the police and will follow the case through the police and will follow the case through the police and the full extent of the says he will follow the case through the police and will follow the case through the police and board were saved.

The superintency and the supersistency was deposited in an enclosure specially number of the dead chief kept watch throughout the voyage across the channel, relieving one another at regular stated intervals. Among those who kept guard were saved. will follow the case through the police and district courts and land those who are responsible for Smith's sudden taking off in the penitentiary, if such a thing is possible. Right on top of this assertion came the adding of five more names to the original adding of five more names to the original complaint this morning, and before moon "Uncie Jimms" Carmon, the veteran acout, General McGath and George Greevey, a switchman, were arrested, charged, as were the others, with murder in the first degree. John Hudson was arrested late Saturday night, charged with vagrancy and sleeping in a box car, but it is intimated that he is one of those included in the information against the lynchers, and the charge of murder will be placed against him.

against him.

Mrs. Smith, wife of the mob's victim,

POCATELLO, Ida., Oct. 13.—[Special telegram to Turk Herrard.]—Freight Conductor McBride, who runs between this point and Ogden, fell between the cars early this morning at Cache Junction and came near being killed. His left arm was cut

Will be dead strictly responsible for it, and if necessity comes, upon the office, which I hope it will not, the office will not hesitate to annul the contract with such institutions of learning.

Evans' Shortage Growing. completely off and his right hand and shoulder terribly amaned. He may be in-jured luternally. He was taken to the Rallway hospita at Ogden, where he now

Rev Dr. Green on the Bible.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 12,-Rev. Dr. Green, senior professor in the theological denoisncy. seminary and moderator of the last general assembly, who is, perhaps, the most profound Biblical student opposed to a revison of the confession of faith, preached yesterday before the college students, and in the course of his sermon, after reviewing his well-known argument for the verbal inspiration of the Scriptures, said: "The question is as to the general trustworthiness of the Bible. Can we accept the Old Testament at all if it is full of false the Old Testament at all it is that of talse statements of historical facts which are not incidental but essential! If the stories of miracles are emanations of a heated oriental brain, and the prophets were they deceivers of the people; if the human history contained in they deceivers of the people, it the human history contained in the Bible is untrue, can we accept as true statements for which it is the only authority concerning God? This is the point for which we are fighting, not as to mere verbal inaccuracy, but as to the Washington, Oct. 12.—The report published this morning to the effect that a convention has been concluded with for some time been in progress between the two governments with a view on the ley tariff act part of Germany to secure the continued free admission of her sugar lute this country in return for certain concessions of customs duty to be extended by Germany to American products of various descrip-tions. It is learned, however, that these negotiations are still in an uncompleted singe of progress with good prospects of being brought to a satisfactory conclusion President will possess the power to issue a proclamation imposing duties conditionally levied by the tariff act of October 1, 1890, upon all sugars imported from any country that imposés duties upon agricultural or other products of the United States which in his judgment are no reciprocally equal and reasonable.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.-A committee, each from the Brotherhood of Section Foremen of America and the Order of Railway Trackmen of Alabama, met in conference this afternoon. The meeting is held pur-suant to a resolution adopted by the former body during its convention last winter. The object is to secure an smalgamation of urer's office is still occupied by Henry, the Republican hold over. Sanger refuse his admission as treasurer but was told he could enter as a citizen. He and the compute office and adjourned until 2 o'clock to meet in the compitedier's effice. This action is likely to complicate the collection of the very state taxes. Two of Them at Pocatello Inlection of the yearly state taxes.

Sapphires and Rubies.

Specialto THE HERALD-EXEMINET Dispatch New York, Oct. 12 .- A Herald London cable says: A huge American enterprise to be launched this week on the London market is the Sapphire and Ruby company of Montana, which will ask the public for $3 252,000, on the declaration that the com-pany will secure 4,000 acres in Montana on

CONTRACT SCHOOLS

Dr. Dorchester Instructed Visit and Inspect Them.

The Work to Be Jone as Thoroughly as in the Government Schools-Defects and Superiority to Be Noted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 .- The commissioner Mrs. Smith, wife of the mob's victim, appeared at police headquarters this morning and asked for the clettes belowing to ther husband, that were secured by the officers after the assault on the little Yates girl. When Smith was arrested on the morning after the assault he had on a suit of old clothes, and the officers found the suit he had worn the preceding afternoon in a trunk in his house. These clothes answered the description of those worn by the child's assailant, and they were taken by the police to hold as evidence against Smith's when the case was called for trial. As they will never be wanted for that purpose Mrs. Smith was allowed to take them this morning.

In this connection it may not be out of place to mention the stories told by three persons who were to have been Smith's principal witnesses had his case ever gone to trial. His intention was to have proven an allot. The wife of the dead man stated most positively to Jurge He-sight his morning that at the time the assault was sommitted between a hand a clock Wednesday afternoon, her husband was at home heiping her to wash. Smith's mother state with equal cortainty that at that time haves at her house a salege.

On an accordance of friendly greeting, until after the trainsference of the body to the same thorough inspection made in the same through its principal with the had worn the preceding afternoon in a trunk in his house. These clothes answered the description of those worn by the child's assailant, and they were taken by the police to hold as evidence against Smith when the case was called for trial. As they will never be wanted for that purpose Mrs. Smith's mother state by the persons who were to have been Smith's principal witnesses had his case ever gone to trial. His intention was to have proved in the provention of the dead man stated most police in the p of indian affairs has written a letter to Dr. Dorchester, superintendent of Indian schools, instructing him to visit the contract schools and subject them to the same thorough inspection made in the government schools. The superintendent is also of William Evans, secretary of the Morse Wool Scou ing company, which occurred several days ago, place the amount of the shortage discovered at $60,000. Evans' friends deny a defaication and claim Evans will appear in good time and explain the ## Officers and Crew of the Despatch Safe.

Washington, Oct. 10 .- Lieutenant Cowles, commanding the United States steamer Despatch, has telegraphed the secretary of the navy from the Assateague life-saving are safe on shore and they saved all their clothing and all the boats except the cutter The Yantic has arrived at the scene of the wreck, but has been quasile so far to render any assistance. It is now believed the Despatch will be a total loss.

United States Supreme Court. Washington, Oct. 12. - The supreme

absent from the court. Chief Justice Ful-ler is in Chicago, where his daughter is very Ill, and Justices Bradley and Gray have both been ill, but are now recovering broad truthfulness and trustworthiness of the Bible against the destructive criticism which throws wide open the gate which would lead us down into self-seeking rationalism."

The business transacted was the admission to fix the arm. Despite the driver of the mourners were and the announcement by Justice Field women.

This tipe most important cases advanced for argument next Monday were postponed until the second Monday in November.

This step was taken for the reason it is desired they shall be heard by a full band.

The business transacted was the admission the arm. Despite the drending rain, a large proportion of the mourners were and the mourners were and the mourners were and the mourners were and the mourner postponed to the procession started, lead by the argument next Monday were postponed until the second Monday in November.

This step was taken for the reason it is desired they shall be heard by a full band. broad truthfulness and trustworthiness The business transacted was the admissilished this morning to the effect that a not be present Monday next. The list inconvention has been concluded with cludes the Sayward case, which involves Germany by which the cereal products of the question of the jurisdiction of the the United States will be admitted free of United States over the seal fiberies in duty, etc., is not true. Negotiations have Behring sea; the anti-lottery cases, the tion of the constitutionality of the McKin-ley tariff act. The court adjourned a few minutes after 10 and was a few minutes after 12 and went in a body to pay its respects to the President.

A Spanish Grandee Coming.

[Special to THE HERALD-Examiner Cable.] London, Oct. 12.-New York society will have a chance to entertain a typical Spanish grandee when the duke of Alba arives next week by the Teutonic. The duke is under the special patronage, during the trip, of Mrs. Jaffray, who has captured him for the seat next to her at table. This is the Duke of Alba's second visit to America. To a correspondent who taked with him at Liverpool, he said he was simply going over for a good time, and would probably travel as far as San Francisco. The duke has left his wife and two little Albas in their beautiful Spanish home at Madrid,

Census Bullentins on Stock on the Range.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.-A bulletin issued by the census office to-day on live stock on the range shows that in June, 1800 there were upon the ranges 517,128 1800, there were upon the ranges 517.128 horses; 5,433 mules, 14,100 asses or burrors, 6,828,182 cattle, 6,675,902 sheep, and 17,276 swine, with sales of horses in 1889 amounting to $1,418,205; cattle, $16,914,712; sheep, 20,000,000 and sales with $2,000 to $1,000 t

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH; TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1891.

to Rest.

THERE WERE NO DISTURBANCES

At the Funeral-Tributes of Love and Respect -The Parnellites Issue a Manifesto Refus-

With Murder in the First Degree.

With Murder in the First Degree.

Pocatello, Ida, Oct. 12.—[Special total gram to The Hersten,]—The evil of sell-ing liquor to Indians manifested itself and to the caugired by the company, "sareful prospecting has demonstrated the existence of supplied in the history of gen disconstrated the existence of supplied in the history of gen disconstrated the existence of supplied in the history of gen disconstrated the theodore of an ancient river channel became perfectly wild and, drawing a knife, cut and alashed at the other, Rig George, cutting him severely in several places. The wounds, though painful, are not necessarily fatal. The fight took place on Partner fiver, and the bedrock of an ancient river and covered by a deposit of pravel."

Here Omaba Lynchers Arrested.

Omara, Neb., Oct. 12.—[Special totale total t were the lord mayor of Dublin, High Sher-iff Meade and Mr. Parnell, brother of the deceased.

The journey across was eventiess, the the journey across was eventiess, the boat making the passage in a gaie of wind and through torrents of rain. At Kingstown a crowd had collected to receive the remains on trian soil. Conspictors among those present were these followers of Mr. Parnell: Richard Power, Dr. Joseph E. Kenny, T. Lawrence Carei, James J. Danton, T. Rochfort Maguire, John J. Clancy, William J. Corpat Colonal John P. Nasse, William J. Corpat Colonal John P. Nasse. with an J. Corbet, Colonel John P. Nolan and Patrick O'Brien. These, with the members of the house of commons who followed the body from London, and the Kingstown delegation comprised nearly all the parliamentary adherents of Mr. Parnell. All gathered around the coffin in absolute signors, who was supposed even

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—New developments in densor. The city hall was soon reached connection with the sudden disappearance its front was covered with solemin drap-to our dear mother's husband.

From 10 o'clock till 2 in the afternoon a crepe interwoven with green ribbon around the arm. Despite the drenching rain, a large proportion of the mourners were black horses, surrounded by the parlia-mentary colleagues of Mr. Parnell. As the coffin passed, almost hidden in flowers, every head in the vast assemblage was un-covered. Mr. Parnell's favorite horses followed the bler. Then came a strong body of the Clanna-Gaels, beaded by James Starbars, and Lake O'Leary. Promi-Stephens and John O'Leary. Prominent among the individual members in the procession was John O'Connor, leading by the arm the bind member. McDonaid. Then came carriages containing Dickinson, a sister of Parnell, Parnell's prother and sister and other nearer friends. The lord mayor in state, precoded by the city marshal and the steward and mace beaters, were next behind the carriages. Then followed the representatives of the principal Irish towns, various trade societies, foresters, home rulers, private carriages and citizens on foot.

Just as the procession started the rain ceased. The scene was most impressive.

All the wondows and housetops siond the line of march were packed with heeple. The procession surpassed in point of num-bers anything of the kind ever wi nessed in Dublin. Throughout the long route admirable order was kept until the cortege came near Galasnevin.

People began gathering in the country.

People began gathering it the country early in the moraing despite the mind and drenching showers. During the long waiting throughout the day crowd on crowd in inspected the turf-lined tomb guarded by a single group of police, who had a difficult task to keep them moving. The grave, which was some seven feet deep, has been cut out of an artificial mound covering a cut out of an artificial mound covering a plot which had long been used to inter the peasant people.

By 4 o'clock the police became overwholmed by the

see the cortege, and met the great contend-

see the cortege, and met the great contending wave of others trying to enter.

The procession for a long time was checked and thrown into disarray. It was decided to close the lower gates, and this was effected amid great disorder just as the hearse reached the spot.

The hearse was then taken to a platform specially constructed for the purpose in reaching was then taken to a platform specially constructed for the purpose in order to enable those in the procession to file around and have a full view of the bier. At 6 o'clock the falling dusk found the procession still filing past. There seemed no likelihood that the stream of marchers would end till far into the night. So orders were given to the coffin to the were given to remove the coffin to the grave. A body of Cian na Gasia succeeded in clearing the way to the grave and formed a circle, within which were grouped the lord mayor of Dublin, the civic dignitaries, Paroell's colleagues in parliament and relatives.

Most of the public bouses remained closed throughout the day, out of respect to the dead. The police, unfailingly obtrusive in Irish public gatherings, were to day consultance by their absence. To night, Sun-

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL, THE IRISH LEADER DEAD.

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL,—THE GREAT RITCH INTERNAL LEADER DEAD.

Parnell was an Irishmon, born at Avondale, Wicklox, in 1846, but he was of English descent on the naternal side and of American on the maternal. His mother, who resides in this country, is a daughter of the Admiral Cherles stewart of the American navy. Mr. Parnell was a graduate of University of ambridge. After leaving college he made a tour of the United States. In 1853 he was appointed high sherlif of Wicklow county. The same year be was defeated as a candidate for membership in the house of commons, but the following year he was elected member for Meath. The next year he began his obstructive acties in the house of commons, of which he continue a member until his death. His bill, on this of the Health of the support given them was super size. In 1878 Mr. Parnell was elected president of the Hene Rule confederation and he continued to be the leader of the Trish people, toth in par lament and outside, until the scandal of his relations with Mrs. O'Shea displaced him. His acquaintance with the wife of Captain O'Shea first excited the jealousy of her husband in 1881, when service and played the "Post ingress" of the Christian in the content of the content of the Christian in the content of the Christian in the content of the christian in the content of the content of the content of the content of the christian in the content of the content of the christian in the content of the content of the christian in the conten court of the United States met for the Continuous stream of people poured into city to day continue their eulogies of the Continuous tream of people poured into city to day continue their eulogies of the court of the Court Chief Justice Ful. sand persons paid their respects to the the proposed union with the McCarthyites came up and after debate resolutions de-nouncing such union were carried.

Thousands of persons unable to pay their respects to the dead chieftain yesterday because of the great jam of people and the inclement weather, to-day crowded around inclement weather, to-day crowded around the tomb at Glassnevian cemetery. An immense number of floral offerings were brought, and for a space of twelve feet around the grave the ground is covered with them.

$100,000.

A dispatch from London to-night says the British steamer Norwegian, which has arrived at Glasgow from Montreal, had on board the crew of the British steamer with them. with them.

United Ireland to day, in a factional leading editorial, appeals to Irishmen in this wise: "Are you for Ireland and nationality or for Britain and degradation!"
The same paper says Miss Anna Parnell is seriously ill since receiving the news of her brother's death. At a private meeting of the parliamentary followers of Parnell to-day, it was de-cided to contest the seat for Cork, but al-low North Kilkenny, the seat of Hennessy,

A Parnellite Manifesto. LONDON, Oct. 12.-Mr. Parnell's parliamentary colleagues have issued the following manifesto:

Ireland has lost her lander but her cause remains. Our duty to the living and to the dead is to maintain, erect and un-suilled, the dag of national independence. Political Complications in Connecticat Hartforn, Conn., Oct. 12.—The trensurer and comptroller are req ired by law to meet to-day in the treasurer's office to banks and insurbnoe companies for taxabitins. This morning Companies for taxation. This morning deletion for the intervent content the functional cause, Von saked the value of non-resident stock in furcial at the entrance gates to the come tax spring.

Memorials to the Throns of China
Loxino, Oct. 12.—The Brothenood of Martin and Procession
the functional cause, Von saked to the division of the many assurance that their vasces will defer to the mont sharped
the functional cause, Von saked to the functional cause, Von saked to the function of the many assurance that the their vasces will be free from siezure in Behrings of t

The Augusta Victoria is Almost Swamped by Heavy Seas.

PASSENGERS BATTENED DOWN

Many Have Their Limbs Broken-Rough Ex perience of the Umbria-The Dev onshire Abandoned at Sea.

New York, Oct. 12,-This is the season of cyclones and life affoat is attended with peril and much physical discomfort. The Alaska is a day overdue and has not yet been heard of, and the Augusta Victoria was not sighted until early this morning. The Umbria, one of the best storm de-morning but was not sighted off Sandy Hook until last night. Two steamers re-port having met a number of cyclones. The Augusta Victoria arrived at her dock shortly before noon. Her officers report that from October 4 to 9 she experienced heavy westerly gales with tremendously

fiers of the Cunard line, was due yesterday heavy westerly gales with tremendously high seas. The steamer sustained no great damage but several passengers were thrown down and a number of them had their arms or legs broken; eight or more were severely cut about the head.

The Umbria also reported bad weather. The steamer sustained no damage, but a few of her passengers were injured.

During the greater part of the trip of the Augusta Victoria not a passenger was allowed on deck. During the whole voyage her commander never slept. He was on the bridge cay and night, and I was the unanimous verdict of all on board that to unanimous verdicto all on board that to his wonderful seamanship and skill in handling he great vessel was due the safety of the ship and passengers. During four days her deexs were under water most salety of the same and passengers. During four days her deeks were under water most of the time. The seas were like mountains and the big vessel pitched and plunged violently with every shock.

[On the 7th linst a series of accidents happened that crippled many passengers. Dr. Lenburn and August Treisison, cabin passengers, both had their arms broken. In the steerage the misery was great. The inmates were not allowed on deck and were packed into a fichise mass. At every lurch of the ship they were thrown to the floor, and frequently in trying to rise as the vessel righted were thrown back and not a few received painful injuries. There were eighteen members in the Eppe family and not one of them escaped without bruises. On the 8th the storm was at its worst, and during the entire day the main deck was under water and many more accidents occurred. A Mrs. White and her daughter were thrown across the cabin by a lurch of the ship, and both had their right arms. were thrown across the cabin by a lurch of the ship, and both had their right arms broken. Nathan Solomon, Franz Rudolph fully thirty-five suffered painful bruises and cuts and one or two had their arms dislocated. All were attended to on board and dust and dust and dust and dust and dust and dust and were able to move to-day.

The officers and passengers of the Umbria also report a terrible voyage. October also report General Kautz says are regards the highest duty of our small army in time of peace to be the army should be obtained from the young ambitious and energetic sons of particle cititous and trouble will follow unless some provision is male in anticipation.

In cosing his report General Kautz says he regards the highest duty of our small army in time of peace to be the except and dissemination of military knowledge among the people. Recruits for the army had becomes a horricane. This weather continued throughout Tuesday, out to see the continued for the passengers and the highest duty of our small army in time of peace to be the exquisition
and dissocurate in anticipation.

In cosing his report General Kautz says he regards the highest duty of our small army in time of peace to be the exquisition
and dissocurate in anticipation.

tember 30. If all reports are true, in ballist, the Devoushire generally made the passage to this city in about lifteen days so no uneasiness has been felt about her non-appearance. She is a twin screw steamship 316.6 feet long, 36.6 feet broad and 25.6 feet deep. She was worth at least $100,000.

A dispatch from Least National club this evening the question of Devonshire sailed from Barrow on Sep- sent any such dispatch as that she had re-miles west of Tory island.

of the blockade in Behring sea next season, orders have been given to Nova Scotia shipbuilders for the construction of several new vessels to be added to the British for the construction of several fendants. The amount involved in the bands of denew vessels to be added to the British Columbia scaling fleet. A movement is on foot among several Nova Setia ship own-ers to form a syndicate and go extensively into the sealing business, sending a large fleet around the Horn this winter to engage in Behring sea sealing next spring.
British Columbian owners say that the Nova Scotlans are going to kill the industry if they send out a fleet of thirty vessels as proposed by a syndicate. The government there positively declines to give them any assurance that their vessels will be free from siezure in Behring sea next spring.

isterial powers. It was at first supposed the granting of this audience was a spontaneous act of courtesy upon the part of the Emperor, but the memorials referred to show it was only accorded after the Chinese minister at London strenuously used this sten in order to avoid and in an urged this step in order to avoid and in an ticipation of a resolute combined demand for an audience which was to have been made by the representatives of the Euro-

A Child Burned to Death

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12. - Grace, aged 4 THE years, youngest daughter of a Mexican woman named Fernandez, was burned to death last night. She, with three other children were locked up in a room. One of of the three overturned a lump which set fire to the youngest. The other children were rescued.

Ex-Governor Biglow Dead.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 12.-Ex-Governor Biglow died at the New Haven house

A Proclamation by Governor Pattison A Proclamation by Governor ratison.

Harmshurg, Pa., Oct. 12.—Governor Pattison has issued a proclamation calling about the senate, which meets in extra session to-morrow for the purpose of inquiring whether "reasonable cause" exists for the removal of Auditor General McCammant and State Treasurer Coyer, to also consider whether there is cause for the re-consider whether there is cause for the re-consider whether there is cause for the resion to-morrow for the purpose of inquiring whether "rensonable cause" exists for the removal of Auditor General McCam-mant and State Treasurer Coyer, to also consider whether there is cause for the removal of the magistrate and constables of Philadelphia.

Spain and the United States.

Madeid, Oct. 12.- The daily papers to day quote from a recent circular of the governor general of Cuba, that after the governor general of Cuba, that after the lapse of commercial treaties next February the "most favored nation clause" will cease to operate. The United States alone will thus reap advantages from the conces-sions granted by the special treaty with Spain. Sugar Works Sart Up.

Luni, Oct. 12.—[Special telegram to Tun Hinald.]—The Lehi Sugar works started up this morning, and everything is working smoothly, far exceeding the most san-

KAUTZ ON RECRUITS

The General Says They Should be Obtained

From the Young, Ambitions and Energetic ons of Patriotic Citizens-They Should Serve One Enlistment-

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.-Brigadier-General Kautz, commanding the department of and John Schreiner, the latter of this city, also so fiered fracture. Himbs.

In the atterage those who had escaped the day before came in for their share, and

The Parnellities Refuse to Coalesce.

Dublin, Oct. 12.—The newspapers of this city to day continue their eulogies of the late Charles Stewart Parnell and on all sides are heard expressions of regret for the dead.

It is reported here an informal meeting of the Parnellite memoers of the commons was held this morning and it was decided not to accept any overtures for coalition with the McCarthytics, but to continue the beats when it was seen the vessel, but parnell in his efforts to regain the position from which he had beed deposed by a majority of his former followers.

No Union with the McCarthyties.

Dublin, Oct. 12.—At a meeting of the National club this evening the question of the companion of the companion of the common of the companion of the common of the common of the commons was the head of the great called the particular of the captain and crew. They may now the majority of his former followers.

No Union with the McCarthyties.

Dublin, Oct. 12.—At a meeting of the National club this evening the question of the commons of the commons of the commons of the commons was held this morning and it was decided to the beats when it was seen the vessel, but partitioned the partition of the continue their eulogies of the instance the time of calling nothing had been received by Mile. The chances are the captain and crew. They undoubtedly took to the beats when it was seen the vessel to be merely offensive, but which was supposed to emante them. The prince noticed on his institute of the ruse of the mutually believe that the other's affections. The cluster's affections and grown coid. But the matter was cleared up while the prince was visiting a grown coid. But the matter was cleared up while the prince was visiting a grown coid. But the matter was cleared up while the prince was visiting a grown coid. But the matter was cleared up while the prince was visiting a grown coid. But the matter was cleared up while the prince was visiting a grown coid. But the thete time dead of the time the time of the time the time

Lizzie F. Rutston against the trustees of cases.

Lizzie F. Rutston against the trustees of John H. Lyle, of London, said laymen the British scanner Novestan, which has arrived at Glasgow from Montreal, had on board the crew of the British steamer States circuit court on demurrer to a mo-Devonshire which was abandoned 500 tion to set aside the release and consent to miles west of Tory island. Nova Scotians Preparing to Go Seal Fishing.

Orrawa, Ont., Oct. 12.—The government

The action referred to asks for an ac-Raiston against Sharon. The release is fendants. The amount involved is about $8,000,000. Complainant sets forth that at the time the Bank of California was forced to close its doors Raiston made a deed of trust to Sharon of all his property, and Sharon filed a return deed to make proper restitution. restitution.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Five bundred thousand ounces of silver were purchased at prices ranging from 974 to 935.

The gave fell at this point, out Atkinson called out, "It was merely a question as to thousand ounces of silver were purchased at prices ranging from 974 to 935.

An Interesting Discussion in the Methodist Council.

RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER

Its Influence is not Equal to that of the Secular Daily-A Itit over Politics in Religious Journals.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 .- The fifth day of with Bishop Hood of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion church of Fayette, N. C., in the chair. The opening services of Bishop Foster said the preacher needed the high qualities of mind and the proper qualities of body. He should know that about which he spoke; he should be a man of experience; he must consider his environments and the people he addressed; must be able to recognize obstructions that stood in the way of his mission. Preachers because of lack of knowledge of the way to go stout their mission. No man could think of God understandingly who did not understand. His power as manifested in His works, so when those to whom he preached came to the teacher with doubt, he should be able to grapple with these presented came to the teacher with doubt, he should be able to grapple with these doubts, overcome them, and show them the way to the truth of the gospet.

Hev. John Bond, of London, followed Bishop Foster in a brief address in the same strain.

Rev. Frank Ballard, of London, and Rev. G. W. Giston, of Pittsburgers, and Rev. C. W. Giston, of Pittsburgers, and Rev.

Rev. Frank Ballard, of London, and Rev. G. W. Clinton, of Pittsburg, also spoke, and Rev. Dr. Leonard, of New York, closed the morning session with a few remarks condemnatory of preachers who invited doubt by delivering sermons on Darwinism and Huxley.

During recess the delegates were freceived at the White House by the President and Mrs. Harrison.

At the afternoon session the topic for discussion was "The Religious Press and Religious uses of the Secular Press," Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, of London, being the essayist. "It was strange," said Dr. Hughes, "that this great agency—the press—has rarely received the consideration of the churches. It was now the fourth estate, the greatest engine of the world, and became so without the aid of the church or tas blessings. Christian churches must the Columbia, in his annual report speaks face the fact that this great power was of the repeated troubles between Indians in the hands of men who were, in and white settlers in Kootensi river country. The Indians in that section are unprovided with an agent and seem to have swift days, the press was supreme. If diseral Kautz says in the near future a great increase in the number of settlers will precede the building of the Great Northern railroad and trouble will follow unless some provision is male in anticipation.

In closing his report General Kautz says he regards the highest duty of our small army in time of peace to be the acquisition and dissemination of minitary knowledge among the people. Recruits for the army should be obtained from the young, and it is not an instant that they may now learn a little from us, for united we and the journalists can hasten the creation of that state which Christ is bringing to all lands in which there shall be no room for or algo of misery.

Rev. F. ii. Dewart, editor of the Christ is of Gaurdian of Toronto, held the church pased, the editors of the daily papers could

John H. Lyle, of London, said laymen should be heard on this subject; no had gone into many store in New York, Boston and Washington and raied in vain to buy a religious paper. The English religious press also needed improvement and he hoped a religious daily paper would be brought forth; the London sporting papers had a larger circulation than all the religious papers.

Mr. Atkinson, an English member of Mr. Atkinson, an English member of parliament, thought religious papers should take no account of political matters. He was proud of Dr. Hughes as a preacher, but was not and never should be proud of him as an editor. When Dr. Hughes was invited to come down from his piace as preacher to aid a decrepit party, he said when he got down there he delivered himself of a sentence almost as near biasphemy as a religious man could have come. The gavel fell at this point, but Atkinson called out, "It was merely a question as to

Rev. Dr. Balmer, of England, aroused